Schauraum ZollArt / Koblach, Vorarlberg

In the premises of the old customs office in Koblach, works by artists of the association Kunst Vorarlberg will be presented all year round from mid-August. The old customs house is located at the intersection of the Rheindamm cycle path at one of Austria's border crossings. The exhibition space is not accessible, but can be viewed at all times – an ideal platform for art in public space. The show at ZollArt starts with an exhibition that reflects and thematizes the geographical location of the place: the Rhine with its sandbanks, stones, the driftwood it carries, with cloud images and moods of nature. On display are works by Roland Adlassnigg, Cornelia Blum-Satler, Ursula Dorigo, Egmont Hartwig and Hanno Metzler.
